

As a resident of Indiana I must voice my objection to replacing the Indiana Do Not Call list and replacing it with the more lenient federal law. Our objection is the constant reducing of our privacy by companies which have no other reason than money. My time at home is more important to me than their intrusion. Issue 02-278 is faulty. Might we suggest that the federal law be replaced with the Indiana version.